1. “Mal Maison” at Maccarone

Keltie Ferris, Harmony Hammond, Shinique Smith, and six other artists “whose works grapple with the portrayal of the female form by complicating, interceding in, and meddling with representations of the body,” as the press release states, share the stage in this exhibition organized by Ashton Cooper.

Location: Maccarone, 98 Morton Street

Price: Free

Time: Opening reception June 7, 6:00 p.m.–8:00 p.m.
