

10 Things to Do in New York's Art World Before June 10

By Ryan Steadman
June 6, 2016

TUESDAY, JUNE 7

Becky Kolsrud, Group Portrait with Security Gate, 2015. Photo: Courtesy of the artist and JTT gallery

Opening: “Mal Maison” at Maccarone

This all-female show, curated by Maccarone artist liaison Ashton Cooper, concentrates on “abstraction-oriented” artists that specifically look to bust up the preconceived idea that there is a shared language with which to describe the female body. This fantastic group of artists, which includes, Rosy Keyser, Brie Ruais, Tschabalala Self, Becky Kolsrud and more, all use abstraction as a tool to dissipate or camouflage the body in ways that redirect the usual thoughts surrounding women’s bodies, and in fact, women artists themselves. A must see.

Maccarone, 98 Morton Street, New York, 6-8 p.m.